Chembra Peak

The tallest peak in the Banasura hills, the Chembra Peak, is as alluring as it is mysterious and brings with it a sense of contentment. For all those who make the climb, all the way 2100 metres above the sea level, there is a prize awaiting – a bird's eye view of Wayanad, and a chance to dine in the pantheon of the Gods.

Kuruva Island

Close to 1000 acres of uninhabited forest land await you to come and lose yourself in the lap of nature. Located along the banks of the Kabini River, the island is home to some of the most exotic birds and plants known to mankind.

Banasura Sagar Dam

The second largest dam in Asia and the largest earth dam in India are amongst some of the titles that are bestowed upon the Banasura Dam. While the dam itself is home to a small hydel-power plant, it has created a green surrounding rich in tropical plants and birds.

Meenmutti Water Falls

The road to Ooty is picturesque and well-structured and along this very route is the Meenmutti Waterfalls. Four hundred feet in height along with a two kilometre long jungle trek, the scenic beauty of the place will make for a spectacular experience if nothing else.

Karlad Lake Wayanad

Wayanad is one of the most beautiful retreat of Kerala. The district of Wayanad is spread over an area of over 2000 sq km and stands at an altitude ranging from 700 to 2100 m above sea level.

Soochipara Waterfalls

Located deep within the forests of Wayanad, the Soochipara Waterfalls are a delight to the serious voyager. The cliff face of the three-tiered waterfall is an ideal spot to test the adventurer in you.
